

Between The Lines Radio Newsmagazine presents

“Democracy vs. the Propaganda State: Why We Must Support Independent Media and Build a Real Alternative to Corporate Power”

A public forum with John Nichols, The Nation Washington Correspondent
co-author with Robert McChesney of the new book,
“The Death and Life of American Journalism: The Media Revolution that will Begin the World Again”

Saturday, June 19, 2010, 2-4 p.m.

Center Church on the Green Parish House

Pratt Hall, 311 Temple Street New Haven, CT

Suggested donation $15, students $5

Booksigning, light refreshments to follow. Seating limited. Reservations recommended.

Call 1-(203) 268-8446 for advance tickets/directions or email us at betweenthelines@snet.net.

Proceeds benefit Squeaky Wheel Productions, nonprofit distributor of Between The Lines Radio Newsmagazine heard on WPKN 89.5 FM, WESU 88.1 FM and 50 other radio stations.

Visit www.squeakywheel.net or www.btlonline.org for more information.

Media Sponsors:

NEW HAVEN
Advocate FAIRFIELD COUNTY
Weekly

Can't attend? Get your copy of
“The Death and Life of American Journalism:
The Media Revolution that will Begin the World Again,” when you donate $50 or more to support
Between The Lines Radio Newsmagazine.

Donate online at www.firstgiving.com/betweenthelines

