

Between The Lines Radio Newsmagazine Presents
A Public Forum and Film Screening

“Capitalism Hits the Fan: The Global Economic Meltdown and What to Do About It”

A frank discussion about capitalism and the structural changes needed to fix today’s broken economy and prevent future crises.

with author Richard D. Wolff, Professor of Economics Emeritus at University of Massachusetts, Amherst

Saturday, Oct. 24, 2009 2:00-4:30 p.m.

Unitarian Society of New Haven
700 Hartford Turnpike, Hamden, CT

Suggested donation $15

Event followed by reception with light refreshments

Proceeds benefit

Squeaky Wheel Productions

Nonprofit distributor of

Between The Lines Radio Newsmagazine

Seating limited. Call (203) 268-8446 for reservations and directions.

Visit www.squeakywheel.net,
www.btlonline.org.